A message from the Director

It's time to celebrate all the good things lotteries bring to our communities. Officially, Lottery Week is July 14-20, but as we leap into summer and start a new fiscal year, it's a perfect time to celebrate our retailers, customers and all the people who've helped us grow. Through this shared purpose, we've deepened our relationships in communities statewide, while raising funds for Ohio schools.

As the fiscal year comes to a close, we estimate retailers have generated more than $4.5 billion in sales, earning more than $299.4 million in commissions, bonuses and incentives. Customers have won more than $3.0 billion in prizes, and together we've raised $1.5 billion for the Lottery Profits Education Fund.

Just a few short weeks ago, I had the opportunity to accompany our wonderful Cash Explosion team on a delivery to the Mid-Ohio Foodbank. Before each show taping, our team encourages the studio audience to bring canned and boxed food to support Cash Explosion's Facing Hunger campaign. That day, we donated 2,684 pounds of food to the Mid-Ohio Foodbank, which serves food pantries around Central and Eastern Ohio. Periodically, the Ohio Lottery sends donations from the Facing Hunger campaign to foodbanks across the state.

Before wrapping up the school year, we celebrated Innes Middle School in Akron as our 2023-2024 Partners in Education School of the Year. We are proud to recognize K-12 schools that focus on student literacy and reading achievement. Innes Middle School was chosen in a random drawing among the 153 schools nominated for the Partners in Education award this past school year. We'll be back with more news on the Ohio Lottery's Partners in Education program when schools go back in session this fall.

Thank you for bringing a bit of enjoyment and fun to Ohio Lottery customers as they go through their day, and for all your hard work as we close another successful fiscal year.

Have a safe and happy summer!

Sincerely,

August 3 Statue Promotion

On this day, we're encouraging fair attendees to find each of the five statues and scan the QR code on each. Once complete, fair visitors who bring their phone back to the Ohio Lottery booth before 3:15 p.m., showing they've completed the task, will receive an entry into a live drawing for scratch-offs, gift cards and a selection of great Ohio State Fair prizes. 50 Year Retailer:

Riesbeck's Food Markets

Located in Belmont,
Guernsey and Monroe
counties

By Vivica Grayson, Communications

2024 is a special year for the Riesbeck family. It not only marks 99 years since Riesbeck's Food Markets first opened, but it also marks 50 years since the business started selling Ohio Lottery products – the same year the Ohio Lottery began!

“Our customers have responded really well...gradually and as the Ohio Lottery games have expanded, our customers have just taken to it,” says Steve Riesbeck, Corporate Program Manager of Riesbeck's Food Markets.

Steve's grandmother started the business in 1925, making him her youngest grandchild.

“For me, as the last member of that third generation, and now coming into our fourth generation of family members and leadership, it's pretty intensive,” he says. “It's one of those things that...it's kind of like the connection we have with one of our customers and communities. Yeah, there's part of it that's business, but a lot of it, it's personal.”

Riesbeck's Food Markets Co-President, Brian Riesbeck, says offering the Lottery at their stores means a lot to their customers.

“I know we sold a $1-million ticket at our Zanesville location. I believe in April we sold a $50,000 Powerball winning ticket...It's neat to see us sell those tickets. It's great to see when the news captures that,” he says.

The communities Riesbeck's Food Markets are located in are close-knit, and the stores conveniently located. So when news spreads about winners at their stores, people make a point of stopping by.

Riesbeck's Food Markets Co-President Brian Riesbeck (left) and Steve Riesbeck, Corporate Program Manager (right), enjoy seeing how customer interest in Ohio Lottery games has grown along with the variety of games offered.

When a customer wins, says Brian, “It's great to see how happy they are, and we celebrate along with them.” The family-owned chain, started by Steve's grandmother, has been in business for the past 99 years and an Ohio Lottery retailer since 1974,

“They're the reason we're here,” Brian says. “I love to see the older generation that still shops at our stores and then I enjoy seeing the people I graduated high school with or went to school with that still shop here,” he said. “I get to see their kids here in the store, see them go to the bakery and get a free cookie or stop by the deli and get a piece of cheese.”

Steve says the business has expanded to 17 locations across Ohio and West Virginia.

Congratulations to Riesbeck's for 50 years of service to the Ohio Lottery.

The Ohio Lottery's Cash Explosion® Show donated three pallets loaded with non-perishable food collected through the show's Facing Hunger Campaign. That's 1.5 tons or 2,684 pounds of food for Ohio families facing food insecurity.

The donation coincides with the Mid-Ohio Food Collective's annual Operation Feed campaign, aimed at restocking the shelves of hundreds of food pantries and emergency shelters in Central and Eastern Ohio.
